Newcomers' Mardi Gras Gala – February 15, 2020

And what a party it was. New Orleans has nothing on us! These flamboyant and joyful photos tell it all--enjoy reliving the fun.

But how do we thank everyone who deserves a hug and a handshake for creating such a terrific party? Planning, preparation, set-up, and knock-down—to say nothing of the 100 or so who attended—we're so grateful for all your efforts and for your all-out revelry, too!

Joy Rocklin marshalled the committees and coordinated the whole shebang—as well as arranged for our great dance teachers. And huge nods of appreciation to all these others and their many committee members -- Lisa Bartlett and JoAnne Allen for the great food and catering; Robin Fravel, who secured our band – and made six delicious King Cakes by hand, as well!; Judy Rogers, who brought us those adorable bartenders; Linda Elbert, who selected delicious wines and helped Araby concoct the Punch; Mary Lynne Hulme for the fun contests and imaginative prizes; Kathie LaLonde and Kathie Beckman who kept our registrations and ticket sales in order; Charlene Geffen and Joy, for the colorful nametags; and Sallie Rinderknecht, for rallying a swift and efficient cleanup crew. Thanks also to Karen Ballash for all that photo documentation! And mega-shout-outs – can you hear us cheering? – to Liz Moore and her minions who spent days decorating the tables and the venue walls, and who blew up scores of balloons-- balloons that never drooped all evening! All these efforts let us see and feel what Mardi Gras is all about.

Somehow the food, the band, the costumes and the dancing -- even the Hurricane Punch – seemed tastier, more melodious, and more festive even than last year. We were all in! Thanks to each and every one of you – and to anyone we may not have included here -- for such a thoroughly enjoyable success!

Ski-Meet-Up Group

Sad news! Although we're continuing to have excellent skiing conditions, Sue Rosenberg, one of the Meet-Up leaders, has had a serious skiing accident – broken ribs and, sadly, a broken wrist as well. We must cancel the Ski-Meet-Up Group for the rest of the ski season.

We hope that many of our downhill skiers had a chance to demo skis and enjoy the snacks and drinks during the January free demo day sponsored by Cole Sports. We saw quite a few of you in the store that day. If you do decide to buy new skis at Coles, please mention that you're a Newcomer Club member and that the demo day helped you decide which skis to buy. Cole Sports was been a generous partner for the demo day and we very much appreciate their services.

Please send good wishes to your Ski-Meet-Up Group co-chair, Sue Rosenberg (rosenbe@umbc.edu) and send any questions about the group to Sallie Rinderknecht (rindermom@gmail.com). We're sorry our season ended so soon – but hope you will join us on the hill again next December–or between now and then, perhaps we'll see you some of you on the slopes!

Fine Dining

Fine Dining groups have been set up for March through June 2020.

If you are interested in participating in Fine Dining as a group member or as an alternate, please contact Joyce Jamele at joycedjay@icloud.com. Couples and individuals are welcome - we will make every attempt to pair individuals.

Linda Elbert & Joyce are the co-chairs for this activity.

Fine Dining is a wonderful way to meet other Newcomers in a more intimate setting. It is for couples and singles who like to cook, eat, and share conversation around the table. Groups dine together once a month at a member's home, rotating locations each month. A menu and recipes for the dinner are provided by the Fine Dining Coordinators (Linda Elbert and Joyce Jamele). There are groups of 8 (4 couples).

WE NEED ALTERNATES!!! Being an alternate is a fun and easy way to participate. If you are unable to accommodate a group in your home, but want to participate, you can sign up as an alternate. Alternates just fill in when regular member(s) can't attend - they bring one of the menu items to the dinner.

A few reminders about groups working together:

- Each group schedules their own dinner dates with each couple (or 2 singles) taking a turn to host.
- Dates should be scheduled in a collaborative manner so the most members of the group can participate. If a couple or individual cannot participate, it is their job to notify the host and find their own alternate. The host prepares the main course and sets the table. Other group members prepare and bring the other dishes.
- Everyone brings their own wine or other beverage of choice.
